

Summit Service Group Employee Update

Happy Valentine's Day!
February 10, 2016

Congratulations to January's Safety Bingo Winners!

Sara P.
Won $50

She doubled her winnings because she wrote each message down for her winning numbers. Sara works in one of our downtown Denver accounts. She's been employed almost 3.5 years! Sara is pictured at right with Summit's controller, Bob K.

Celso Z.

He is pictured at left with Jessica L., our human resources manager / compliance officer. Celso works at one of Summit's Littleton accounts, and he's been employed with us nearly 1.5 years.

We had two other January $25 bingo winners: Alba G. and Marivel M.; we hope to picture these two employees in our March newsletter.

As of February 10, 2016, we have worked

Featured Employee: Hortencia P.

Hortencia was hired at Summit in April of 2008, almost 8 years ago! She works two small Denver accounts for us each weeknight, and along with her base job she is on-call to float into open positions whenever we need her. She frequently saves the day for her area supervisor and area manager because of her flexibility and willingness to work at any location for as many hours as needed.

Hortencia's role as a mother is her top priority, and if she could do anything she wanted for work right now, she'd choose to stay at home and focus even more energy on her three kids. She loves her job and does a great job balancing both work and home, but like many of us, she feels a struggle between needing to work and wanting to share more time with her family. On top of balancing work and home, she tries to exercise regularly, and she enjoys walking and running for exercise. Taking time off from work isn't on her agenda right now, but if she could take a vacation she would love to go to Mexico and visit with her parents in Zacatecas.

While at work, she is proud that many coworkers have told her that they really enjoy working with her. New employees have complemented her patience with them as they try to learn their jobs. She enjoys working with the Summit management team; her experiences with the ops team and the clients have always been pleasant. She believes Summit gives opportunities to grow with the company if they are interested.

Thanks, Hortencia, for your many years of work here at Summit Service Group. You are appreciated!
